of the Province. So that many Irregularities in the Land-Office, such as are mentioned above, must unavoidably have happened; which were speedily rectified on the Settlement of the Government under the Crown, and Removal of the Restraints (by repeated Royal Orders and Instructions sent in to that Purpose) which had impeded his Lordship's Officers in the Execution of their Duty. And accordingly the last Section of this Act is not recorded in *Lib. WH and L, as being thought no longer necessary, the several Demands therein mentioned, having been immediately answered and complied with.

C H A P. IX.

Passed 9th of June 1692. An Act for Appeals, and regulating Writs of Error. Lib. LL. fol. 32. and Lib. WH and L. fol. 18. REP. 1694, ch. 18.*

N. B. This Law is declared to remain and be in full Force, by 1705, ch. 8.

Preamble.

WHEREAS several Persons, void of Grace, and the Dread of the Almighty, have, and do still continue, for small Profits accruing to themselves, to commit wilful and corrupt Perjury, or cause or procure the same to be committed, either out of a Design for the Reasons and Purposes aforesaid, or merely to revenge an imaginary Injury done them, to the great Prejudice of divers of their Majesty's loyal Subjects, inhabiting within this Province. And forasmuch as the Laws for this Province heretofore made, for the Prevention of the like Mischiefs and Inconveniencies, have, upon a mature and deliberate Consideration, by this present General Assembly, been found altogether inconsistent with the Constitution of this Province, or the Laws of England, in such Cases made and provided:

Inconsistency
of former Laws.

II. Be it therefore Enacted by the King and Queen's most excellent Majesties, by and with the Advice and Consent of this present General Assembly, and the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the Publication hereof, shall unlawfully or corruptly procure any Witness or Witnesses,
